ARTICLE I

Membership - Applications-Qualifications - Dues - Assessments

Section 1: Membership: Individual Membership is open to all individuals that are members in good standing of fire companies, engaged in fire and rescue emergency services in Lebanon County, Pennsylvania.

Section 2: Applications: Application shall be submitted in writing giving proper full name, address, date of birth, social security number, beneficiary if applicable, and stating the applicant's willingness to abide by the Constitution and By-Laws of this Association.

Section 3: Beneficial Member: The Applicant shall be sixteen years of age and not have attained his forty-first birthday. The application form shall be accompanied by the yearly dues to be recommended annually by the Executive Committee at the Annual Convention.

Section 4: Non-Beneficial Members: Any applicant approved to membership who is forty-one (41) years of age or more upon acceptance shall be known as a Non-Beneficial Member provided he meets all other qualifications. Such member shall have all privileges of membership except death benefits. The application form shall be accompanied by the yearly dues to be recommended annually by the Executive Committee at the Annual Convention. Assessments cannot be levied upon Non-Beneficial Members.

Section 5: Honorary Members: Any person or persons in recognition of some meritorious act of service performed for this Association, such as the prevention or fighting of fires, or acts as officers or members of the Firefighter's Association are eligible, if proposed by a member in good standing, to become members of this Association by a majority vote of the members present, and shall be known as Honorary Members. They shall not have any voting privilege or benefits of the Association.

Section 6: Life Member: Any member who has paid a total of twenty-five (25) consecutive years' dues to the Association shall be known as a "Life Member." He shall then be excused of any further dues payment and shall enjoy all the benefits previously known from the Association.

Section 7: Military Service: Individuals entering the military service shall be excused from the consecutive year's requirement, and may reactivate his consecutive year's status upon regular payment of dues.

Section 8: Applications: All applications for membership shall be presented in writing on the proper forms, duly completed as required, to the Membership Committee which shall report its findings on the applicant at any regular meeting of this Association. Acceptance shall be determined by a majority vote of the members present.

Section 9: Conduct of Members: All individual members of this Association shall act in a professional manner when attending meetings of this Association, representing the Association at public functions, carrying out the obligations of their elected positions, and serving on committees.

Section 10: Suspensions and Hearings: The Executive Board of this Association shall serve as the Disciplinary Review Board of the Association. They shall investigate and review individual members who are in violation of Article I, Section 9, of these Bylaws. Any individual member of this Association or member of the general public who observes an individual member or members acting in an unprofessional manner as an individual member of the Lebanon County Firefighters Association may bring evidence in writing of such conduct to the Disciplinary Board for their review and investigation. After reviewing such acts of misconduct by an individual member or members of this Association, the Disciplinary Board shall discipline, suspend or expel the offender, as they deem necessary in the best interest of the Association.

Article II

Nomination, Election and Installation of Officers

Section 1: Nominations: All Candidates for office shall be nominated at the monthly meeting in April preceding the Annual Convention. At this meeting the President shall call for any additional nominations from the floor after which the nominations shall be closed.

Section 2: Election of Officers: The election of officers will take place yearly at the May meeting by ballot and installed at the Annual Convention. A majority of the votes cast shall be necessary to elect a candidate to office. The elected officers of this Association are listed in the Constitution, Article IV, Section I, provided however; one Trustee will be elected in rotation from the five regional districts of the County. They are: the Southwest, Northeast, City, Northwest and Southeast, for a five year term, respectively. The Vice-Presidents will be similarly selected in rotation from the five districts except for a one-year term.

Section 3: Sectors: For the purpose of the election of the Fourth Vice-President and the Trustee, the County will be divided into five sectors (5) as follows:
